* * * * * WHO'S WHO * * * * *

RICHARD LAWRENCE (Director) is an active and versatile member of the Footlight Club. Having acted in "The Importance of Being Earnest" and other productions outside the Footlight Club, he also directed "Winterset" last year.

JAMES MEADY (Ernst) has appeared in two past Footlight Club productions - "Winterset" and "Apron and Other Strings". We are pleased that he has, again, become part of the Club.

MRS. THOMAS HIGGINS (Sophie), a long time, very active member of the Footlight Club, again does her stuff in front of an audience. Past productions include "Light Up the Sky", "It's Where You Find It", "Harvey", and "The Best Years of Our Lives".

DON SCOPE (Victor) is well known to the Footlight Club. His past roles include "Apron and Other Strings", "Winterset", "Forty Carats", and "How the Other Half Loves". Mr. Scope recently directed his first production, "My Three Angels", for the Footlight Club.

LISA DOMENCUCCI (Elizabeth) has appeared in many Footlight Club and non-Footlight Club productions. Some of her past theatrical credits are in "Chamber Music", "My Three Angels", "The Importance of Being Earnest" and "The Diary of Anne Frank".

JERRY WHELAN (Henry) appeared last season at the Footlight Club as the Attendant in "Chamber Music" and as the Lieutenant in "My Three Angels".

MILDRED ADELSON (Frau Frankenstein) again performs with the excellence which has marked so many past performances at the Footlight Club. She has previously appeared in "Majority of One", "Don't Drink the Water", "Auntie Mame", "The Importance of Being Earnest", "You Can't Take It With You", and "Chamber Music".

DAVID ERSKINE (The Creature) is appearing in his third production at the Footlight Club. A talented actor, he has also been seen in "Winterset", and in "Apron and Other Strings".

MARIE MACRINA (Justine) has appeared in the Footlight Club production of "Winterset". It is a pleasure to have her on our stage. once more.
